

xii, xxiv, mcmxvi

Mrs Kate C. Randolph,
Toledo, Ohio,
23 Melrose St.

Dear friend:-

On December eighth, I wrote you enquiring as to the possibility of securing a picture of some sort, of the late Paschal Beverly Randolph, and asking some questions which would act as guides to us in working up a biographical sketch of his life and work.

As I have not heard from you to date, and fearing lest my previous letter may not have reached you, I take the liberty of enquiring if same has come to your attention as yet?

The writer of course is unknown to you, except that he was put in touch with you thru Mr. Frederick Spenceley, of New York City.

I sincerely trust you will not consider the previous letter, if it has reached you, as an impertinence, and assure you that I shall value highly any consideration you may be willing to show me.

Very cordially yours,

For the Societas Rosicruciana in America
712 West 180th Street.